

Veteran's Small Business Conference

Now, more than ever, the federal Government is seeking to assist Veteran business owners and veterans to start and grow viable businesses and to win earning their fair share of government contracting opportunities. With this in mind, the US Small Business Administration, the SBTDC NC Procurement Technical Assistance Center, the NC Military Business Center, the City of Jacksonville and Coastal Carolina Community College have come together to provide veterans this informative half-day seminar on how to navigate through the government procurement maze. Information on how to start a business will also be provided.

"The federal government is working hard to ensure that those who have served in uniform have access to federal contracting opportunities," Lynn Douthett, SBA District Director.
