

STUDENT ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

Part of your balanced equation

Your college recognizes the challenges of managing student obligations and balancing life's responsibilities. The Student Assistance Program provides you free, confidential online and telephonic support through a variety of services.

COUNSELING

Professional counselors are available by phone any time, any day to assist you with matters you need to discuss confidentially including relationships, depression, crisis, and substance abuse.

LEGAL SUPPORT

Attorneys in your area are available to provide a free 30-minute consultation by phone, as well as referrals to discounted legal representation, should it be required.

FINANCIAL CONSULTATION

Certified financial consultants can assist you with matters related to credit, debt, money management and more.

ONLINE RESOURCES

You can also visit the website for articles, tips, links, self-assessments, and many other resources.

Your Student Assistance Program provides students free, confidential access to a professional counselor anytime, any day, anywhere via phone or internet.
