

STUDENT ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

If your financial strategy could use an adjustment,
we'll help you make change.

FREE FINANCIAL SUPPORT

Take advantage of the free guidance a professional advisor can offer for any financial issue that you or your family is concerned about.

Qualified advisors and educators are available through the toll free information line without an appointment Monday through Friday. Pre-scheduled counseling sessions are available on Saturday, during the day or evening. Advisors are qualified to assist with:

- Credit, and credit report review
- Debt management
- Bankruptcy prevention
- Housing education
- Financial planning

Following all telephonic sessions, advisors will follow-up by mailing supporting educational materials. As with all services of the Student Assistance Program, financial counseling sessions are completely confidential.

ONLINE RESOURCES

You can also visit the website for a comprehensive library of financial educational materials, including articles, tipsheets, links and calculators.

Your Student Assistance Program provides students free, confidential access to a professional counselor anytime, any day, anywhere via phone or internet.
