12-Week, 8-Week, 5-Week and 4-Week Terms

Pell will only pay for classes that you have attended and have verified attendance. 12-week, 8-week, 5-week, and 4-week terms classes that have not started will not be included in your eligible award hours until those terms have started and you have verified attendance for each class. Your initial Cost of Living Refund amount will be reduced and the remainder will be issued accordingly throughout the semester.

Your Pell Grant Funds will be Adjusted if You:

- Registered for less than 12 credit hours.
- Drop/Withdraw from a course before the financial aid disbursement date or the instructor reports you as a "never attend" for the course.
- Registered for a class that is not in your program of study.
- Registered for a late start class (12-week, 10-week, 8-week, 5-week, or 4-week).
- Registered for a technical or vocational (certificate or diploma) program that requires a clock-hour conversion calculation of funds.
- Exceed the 30-credit hour limit of developmental courses.
- Registered to audit a course or for a credit by examination course.
- Close to your Lifetime Eligibility Used (LEU).
